

ENGLISH AS A MEDIUM OF INSTRUCTION (EMI): PLANNING AND TEACHING YOUR SUBJECT IN ENGLISH

Become a knowledgeable EMI practitioner by developing an essential awareness of the process of academic internationalisation and pedagogical competence applicable to the global classroom.

Enrolement

- Participant Profile Form
- Online Interview
- 1-year Teaching Experience

Duration

- 8 weeks
- 5 hours of Self-Study per week
- 1 hour via Zoom per week

Approach

- Blended Learning
- Interactive Platform
- Ed Tech

Assessment

- Discussion Forum
- Note-Taking
- Lesson Planning

1

The English Effect

English as a Global Language

Academic Internalisation

2

Diversity of English

English as a Lingua Franca

Academic English

3

EMI within Academia

Lecturers' Perspectives

Students' Perspectives

4

EMI Classroom: Teaching Models & Approaches

Shifting Methodologies

Flipped Classroom

5

EMI Classroom: Interaction & Discussion

Meaning Negotiation

The Art of Questioning

6

EMI Classroom: Resources & Materials

Adaptation & Accommodation

Incorporation of Technology

7

EMI Classroom: Assessment & Feedback

Balanced Assessment

Constructive Feedback

8

EMI Classroom: Teaching through Videos

Instructional Video

Final Project Presentation